TOP THREE MEN

SEBASTIAN KIENLE Germany • 08:14:18

After fourth and third-place finishes in 2012 and 2013 (after winning the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship both of those years), Germany's Sebastian Kienle became the first man to win the IRONMAN European Championship in Frankfurt and the IRONMAN World Championship in Kailua-Kona in the same year. Kienle becomes only the fourth German to win the world championship and the first since 2006.

BEN HOFFMAN USA • 08:19:23

After a 15th place finish in 2013, American Ben Hoffman had the race of his life in 2014 to take the runner-up position. A four-time IRONMAN champion, Hoffman lived up to the potential he's shown for years with a solid performance and a great run, holding off Jan Frodeno in the last mile of the marathon.

JAN FRODENO Germany • 08:20:32

The 2008 Olympic gold medalist has made a huge splash on the long-distance race scene this year. Virtually unbeatable over the 70.3 circuit through the early part of the year, the German finished third at the IRONMAN European Championship in Frankfurt, second at the IRONMAN 70.3 Championship and rounded out the podium in his Kona debut.

TOP THREE WOMEN

MIRINDA CARFRAE Australia • 09:00:55

The Australian added a third title to her impressive resume thanks to a course-record marathon run (2:50:27) that saw her overcome the one of the largest run-deficits in IRONMAN history to take the win. Carfrae becomes only the fourth woman to win at least three times in Kona, adding her name to an exclusive list (Paula Newby-Fraser, Natascha Badmann and Chrissie Wellington).

DANIELA RYF Switzerland • 09:02:57

The hottest racer on the IRONMAN circuit since June, Daniela Ryf entered the IRONMAN World Championship with wins at IRONMAN 70.3 Switzerland, the 5150 European Championship, IRONMAN Switzerland, the IRONMAN 70.3 European Championship, IRONMAN Copenhagen and the IRONMAN 70.3 World Championship. A gutsy debut in Kona saw Ryf lead for much of the bike and run.

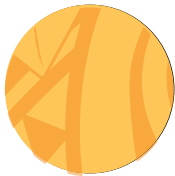

RACHEL JOYCE Great Britain • 09:04:23

The British runner-up a year ago arrived in Hawaii determined to go for the win and put it all on the line in pursuit of the elusive title. Joyce, who practiced as a lawyer before turning her sites on triathlon racing, continued her impressive streak in Kona that has seen her finish sixth, fifth, fourth, 11th, second and third in her six races on the Big Island.

HO'OMAU

Ho'omau reminds us that to overcome our challenges, we must go forth with determination, perseverance, and endurance. Its symbol is the flight of the simple yet majestic Hawaiian 'Iwa bird.

The 'Iwa bird displays Ho'omau - it can fly for days, enduring all elements, steadfast in pursuit of its goal. Staying close to home and never losing its way, the 'Iwa bird was a sign to Hawaiian navigators that the islands were near.

The journey towards the 2014 IRONMAN World Championship presented by GoPro is one of Ho'omau. As you face and overcome challenges, remain courageous and maintain purpose. Pursue your dreams, push past obstacles, and soar with unwavering faith and firm resolution.

You will find your way home.

There have been days with more wind. There have been days with bigger swells in the ocean. But there haven't been many IRONMAN World Championship presented by GoPro race days in which the swim and the bike were as hard as they were in 2014. Despite the tough conditions, 92.4 percent of the field finished. Here are some more interesting facts from this year's race:

Canadian Milos Kostic won his eighth consecutive world championship, taking the men's 70-74 division 13:09:18.

Former Formula One driver and two-time CART champion Alex Zanardi lost his legs after a crash in 2001. The Italian won two gold medals at the 2012 Paralympics and blazed through a tough day in Kona to an incredible 9:47:14 finish.

American Jocelyn McCauley not only won the women's 25-29 category, but the 27-year-old nurse was the fastest women's age group athlete overall thanks to a 9:50:39 finish. She was the 25th woman across the line and 300th overall.

Another American, 38-year-old Daniel Stubbleski, took the men's 35-39 category and was the fastest age grouper overall thanks to his 8:50:22 finish time.

Mirinda Carfrae set a new women's run course record thanks to her 2:50:27 marathon time. That's an average of 6:30 per mile for the entire 26.2 miles. Only three of the men who finished in the top 10 went faster than the speedy Australian.

Despite the tough conditions Sebastian Kienle's bike time was the third fastest in Kona history. The German's 4:20:46 bike split was just over two minutes slower than Normann Stadler's 4:18:23 course record. (Chris Lieto missed the record by nine seconds in 2011.)

The most decorated American winter Olympian, Apolo Ohno, racing for Team Chocolate Milk, traded his speed skates for a swim suit, bike and running shoes and finished the IRONMAN World Championship in 9:52:27.
